TwilightSons of Anarchy

Hello, my beautiful readers!

I just got a question from a guest review on ffnet.

"Would you ever consider doing a crossover of twilight and soa jax/bella pairing. I like your writing and really like that pairing and would be curious what your spin would be."

Well, it has jump-started my muse. I have a few ideas for that pairing. Now, I don't know how long it will take me to write, I don't know if it will be a one-shot or chaptered fic.

What I need from you guys is your opinions. Here is what I have so far, and what I need from you.

Bella gets sent to live with Charlie just like in the books, but the reasons are different. The Cullens start stalking Bella. Edward wants Bella. Charlie decides to send Bella to live with some friends of his. He finally tells Bella his real past (I won't tell you what it is yet.). He sends her to Charming to live with Gemma. **

Now, what I haven't figured out yet, is if I want this to be all human, even the wolf pack and vampires are human or not. I haven't written an all human one yet, might be interesting.

So, my question right now is. "All Human or no?" If you all decide you want it all human, I have more ideas for that, and will be bringing in an all human Volturi.

Also, if you have any ideas that goes with what I have above feel free to share them!
